

Parents

- Read aloud with your child.
- Share experiences.
- Become informed about your state's testing procedures.
- Help your child know what to expect.
- Help your child with his or her regular school assignments.
- Keep in regular contact with your child's teacher.
- Learn to use computers as an educational resource.

Remember-simply getting your child comfortable with testing procedures and helping him or her know what to expect can improve test scores!